

Paul Deninger is a Vice Chairman of Jefferies & Company, Inc. and Chairman of Jefferies Broadview technology investment banking group. Mr. Deninger joined Broadview in 1987 and was the firm's CEO from 1996 until the firm's acquisition by Jefferies in 2003. With more than 20 years of experience in the technology industry, he has advised on over 100 transactions including, most recently, CA's $450 million acquisition of Netegrity, SBC's $170 million acquisition of Yantra, and HP's acquisition of AppIQ. Paul has been a member of the World Economic Forum since 1996 and serves on the boards of The Boston Globe, Boston Symphony Orchestra, TechNet, and The MATCH School. He also sits on the investment committee of London-based Kennet Venture Partners. Paul holds an MBA degree from Harvard Business School and a BS degree from Boston College.